MICHIGAN LEADERSHIP IMPROVEMENT FRAMEWORK ENHANCEMENT

MI-LIFE COHORT FIVE

Michigan Leadership Improvement Framework Enhancement 21st Century Leadership for 21st Century Learners

Attention all Administrators, School Leaders, and School Improvement Teams: MI-LIFE Cohort 5 Is Coming to Monroe ISD Fall of 2011!

The MI-LIFE program has been providing a valuable professional learning opportunity for over 800 school administrators and administrator/teacher teams in Michigan. Because of the success of the program and based on evaluations and feedback from those who have participated in the first four cohorts, a fifth cohort of MI-LIFE will be offered beginning in September 2011 through March 2012 at Monroe ISD.

The program will consist of six (6) face-to-face sessions and one (1) online course with intersession assignments between the face-to-face sessions and will be conducted at convenient locations around the state.

Successful completion in the program can result in 18 SBCEUs or approved University credits and, if eligible, an administrator endorsement.

For complete information about the curriculum and courses visit the MI-LIFE web site at <http://www.mi-life.org> and select the Cohort 5 Fast Link.
